The Wheels on the Bus

The wheels on the bus go round and round
Round and round
Round and round
The wheels on the bus go round and round
All day long.

The mummies on the bus sing to us
Sing to us
Sing to us
The mummies on the bus sing to us
All day long.

The daddies on the bus - eat all the food……

The children on the bus - drink all the milk……..

The grandads on the bus - go to sleep…….

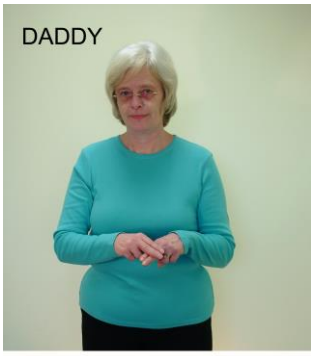
The grandmas on the bus – read a book……

Hands are positioned as if on a steering wheel. Hands mime steering. Hands are further apart for the bus.

Both hands are held crossed over the face. The hands are in a flat position with the palms facing the face. The hands move outwards finishing approximately shoulder width apart.

Finger spell 'm' twice ie. tap fingers twice.

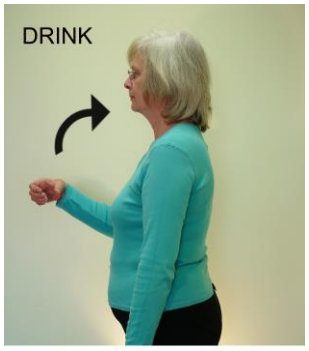
First two fingers of dominant hand are extended. Hand spirals upwards and outwards from the mouth.



Finger spell `f' two times ie. tap fingers twice.

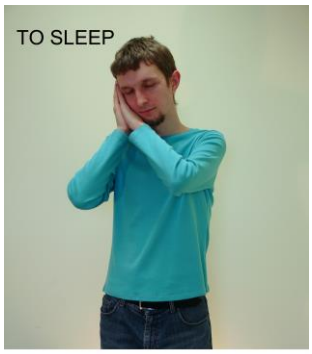
With a bunched hand, fingers tap the corner of the lips twice.

With palm of hand facing downward, move hand upwards showing the different heights of children.



With dominant hand in a cupped shape, hand moves toward the mouth.

Finger spell `g' then `f'.



Palms of hands are together.
Hands rest on one cheek. Eyes close.

Finger spell `g' then `m'.

Hands are held to show an open book, hands then move from side to side.